Cookie Policy

(version of 1st November 2023)

1. What is a cookie?

A cookie is a small file made up of letters and numbers that is downloaded to your computer when the User accesses certain websites. In general, cookies enable a website to recognize the User's computer.

The cookies we install are used to improve the user-friendliness of our website, for example by remembering the User preferences regarding the use of the Website and language settings.

2. Why do we use cookies?

We may use cookies and similar technologies for several purposes, for example: i) for security or fraud protection purposes, and to identify and prevent cyber-attacks, ii) to provide the User with the service that the User has chosen to receive from us, iii) to monitor and analyze the performance, operation and effectiveness of our service and iv) to improve the User's experience.
